Line-up (2009-2010)

•We are planning to have six Coffeehouses this season on the 2nd Saturday of the month but to date we only have 3 scheduled

October 10, 2009 - TOM GALA – We're welcoming back Tom who last performed for us in 2000. He has written songs of his everyday life and the world he sees around him. Gala's work often transcends the common, predictable tripe that is the general output of our local bards. Musically, his songs have far more rock 'n roll dynamics, bluesy grit and country and western ramble while his lyrics tell stories like the oldest American folksongs.

Saturday, November 14, 2009 - MELMARK JOYBELLS – The Joybells led by two professional musical directors, choir members with developmental disabilities use a variety of handbells, chimes, and percussion instruments in their varied repertoire of sacred, classical, popular, and patriotic selections.

Saturday, December 12, 2009 – LUKENS PIANO TRIO – Members are violinist Michael Locati, cellist David Moulton and pianist Kristin Ditlow. Reviews of their previous performances have described them as playing with “exquisite sensitivity” and “enormous passion, fine precision, and great musicality”. They will perform for us from the classical repertoire.

Saturday, March 13, 2010 - SILK CITY – They played for us in 2001 and are returning for this season. Silk City (Barry Mitterhoff, Danny Weiss and Larry Cohen) is a string band with a sound as unique as their repertoire. Mandolin, guitar and bass blend in a breathtaking variety of styles including hard-driving bluegrass, wide-ranging ethnic music, sparkling original vocals and instrumentals and audience favorites like the "Wizard of Oz Medley". The trio combines exciting, interesting arrangements and meticulous delivery with a hard-hitting sound that will enrapture acoustic music lovers.
