Saturday, October 13, 2012 – JOHN FORSTER is an award-winning songwriter, humorist and record producer and has claimed the satirical crown long abandoned by Tom Lehrer. He's one very funny songwriter.

“Forster has the world view of George Carlin, the musical-parody chops of Frank Zappa in his glory days, musically and lyrically clever in ways that Al Yankovic can only dream about.” (Paul D. Lehrman, The Boston Phoenix)

Saturday, April 13, 2013 - LESLIE BURRS, flute, has captivated audiences with his exciting, distinctive sound -- an inspired combination of classical virtuosity and dazzling improvisation. He has appeared as guest soloist and composer in both classical and jazz settings. In our 2000-01 season, Leslie's presentation was most remarkable and surprises are in store for us this season.
