

Organizations in Pop-up Advocacy

Before and After the Showing of Citizen George at The Ambler Theater May 10, 2025, 11AM

TABLE 1

Power Interfaith <https://powerinterfaith.org> is a grassroots organization of PA individuals and congregations committed to racial & economic justice, and a more livable planet for all.

Contact: Blessing bosazuwa@powerinterfaith.org

Project Libertad <https://www.projectlibertad.org> of Phoenixville provides essential, youth-led, and youth-centered legal and social services for immigrant youth and their families.

Contact: Christine Gartner – board pres. christinegartner@projectlibertad.org

TABLE 2

The Attic Youth Center <https://atticyouthcenter.org> creates opportunities for LGBTQ youth to develop into healthy, independent, civic-minded adults within a safe and supportive community and to promote LGBTQ acceptance within society.

Contact: Brian Graves brian@atticyouthcenter.org

EQAT (Earth Quaker Action Team) <https://eqat.org> a grassroots, nonviolent action group including Quakers and people of diverse beliefs, who join with millions of people around the world fighting for a just and sustainable economy.

Contact: Lina Blount lina@eqat.org

TABLE 3

Family Promise <https://fpmontco.org> partnering with the community to address homelessness and hunger, one family at a time.

Contact: Kyla Turbett kyla@fpmontco.org

Manna <https://mannapa.org> uses nutrition to improve health for people with serious illnesses who need nourishment to heal. By providing medically tailored meals and nutrition education, they empower people to improve their health and quality of life.

Contact: Sue Daugherty sdaugherty@mannapa.org

TABLE 4

Journeywork <https://journeywork.org> working to restore the land by replacing lawns with native plants.

Contact: Paige Menton paigementon@gmail.com

PennEnvironment <https://environmentamerica.org/pennsylvania/> works for clean air, clean water, clean energy, wildlife and open spaces, and a livable climate.

Contact: Belle Sherwood belle@pennenvironment.org